

We Invite You...

To join this dedicated group of volunteers who assist the traveling public at Will Rogers World Airport by providing information about airport services and the Oklahoma City metro area.

Trained volunteers assist travelers, military personnel—including new recruits, and international students with information, referrals, and emergency assistance at the airport.

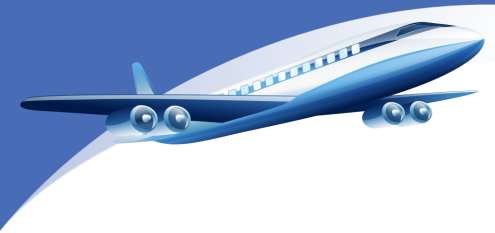

Contact Us:
Sharon Scott
Travelers Aid
Volunteer Coordinator
405.232.5507 x107
sscott@upwardtransitions.org

1134 W . Main Street
Oklahoma City, OK 73106
405.232.5507

Become an Airport Volunteer!

Travelers Aid
Information Booths
A program of Upward Transitions

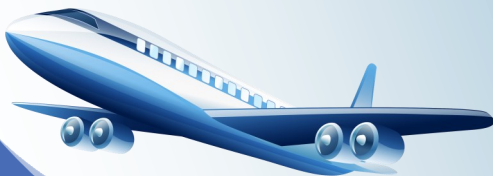

Will Rogers World Airport
Oklahoma City, OK

Travelers Aid Airport Volunteers

Volunteers provide a helping hand and friendly face to travelers and visitors at Will Rogers World Airport.

Volunteers work at least two, four-hour shifts a month and receive free parking during volunteer shifts.

Information Booths are open seven days a week from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Volunteer Duties

- STAFF the information booths
- PROVIDE courteous & friendly service to the traveling public
- ASSIST with directions & information concerning the airport & the Greater Oklahoma City metro
- ASSIST military personnel
- DISTRIBUTE maps & brochures
- ANSWER information booth phones
- PROVIDE courtesy paging services
- DISPENSE social service information
- PROVIDE a warm welcome & a big SMILE to the traveling public

Partnership

This program is a unique collaboration of government organizations and non-profit management.

This program is funded by the Oklahoma City Airport Trust. Upward Transitions, a local Oklahoma County non-profit, facilitates the operation of the program.

Will Rogers World Airport supports the program with space, information, & technical support.

Visit our website application:
upwardtransitions.org/volunteer

